AMBLER IN THE RUNNING.

Win First Victory by Defeating Chestnut Hill.

Heavy Hitting and Good Support of Pitcher Hetzel—New Players Show Up Well—Local Boy Douglass Makes Big Hit.

Ambler 11, Chestnut Hill 4, and then it rained. Manager Amey's ball team broke loose last Saturday and delivered 19 safe and telling blows for total of 28 bases against David Bennis' all-star cast and when the dust had cleared away 11 large tallies were chalked up for Ambler. Is it any wonder that our fellows lost all control of themselves. They were banged about in the roughest kind of a way during the six pevious leagues.

In the third session when Ambler sent 11 men to the bat and they made six hits, including two three-base blows and scored five runs, and added to this evidence are the safe and telling blows that were delivered in each succeeding period. As announced, Manager Amey trotted out Hetzell, who is no stranger to local fans, to do box duty, and right well did he perform. Despite the 11 hits that the Hillers made they should have scored only one run. Besides a new pitcher, Manager Amey also showed us a new third baseman, and if Saturday is a sample of his ability, Brown will surely be a fixture there. Not until the eighth session did we see the local management's high ace, and when Umpire Dewalt walked to the grandstand and announced, "Douglass now batting for Baier." It was our own local boy, Winchester Douglass, and as he walked to the plate the fans cheered and cheered this lad who has been hitting all pitchers alike in the suburban league. It was a trying position, but he was equal to it however. He saw the first ball cut the plate for a strike. The next pitch was a ball. The next one he fouled off, and then on the next pitch bat and ball met with a mighty crash and when the sphere was returned to the field Douglass was resting on third and Brown, who had previously reached second, crossed the rubber.

There was a shake up in the infield. Byrnes was placed on second, while Brown was sent to third base. Hallowell will remain on the bench for the present until he recovers his health. Chestnut Hill was the first to score, Baier staking the visitors to a two-run lead in the second inning. Normile opened the session by striking out. McNichol was thrown out at first. McGrory hit a high one to center field, which Baier misjudged and then fell as he was running after the ball. McGrory got three bases on this hit and which also scored Bennis. A moment later the former also scored on Geoghan's safe blow.

Ambler got one of these runs back in the last half of the same inning. A base on balls to Silverman. His steal of second and Cavis' single. The visitors again widened the lead in the next round on a base on balls a wild pitch and two singles. All that has been told brooke loose in the final part of this inning, and when the period was closed Ambler was leading by three runs. In the next three innings the locals added three more runs and finally we tallied two more runs in the eighth round. While the best the Hillers could do was to score one more run which happened in the seventh session. Only one miscue marred the playing of th elocal team and their batting was all that could be desired. Every player on the team got at least one hit. Cavis, Hetzel and Sharkey led the attack with three hits each. Martin also did some timely hitting, his two safe blows coming at a most opportune time. The base running of Silverman and the fielding of Brown were the features of this part of the game.

For Chestnut Hill McNichol and Worthington did the best batting, while the catching of McGrory was the fielding feature for the Hillers. Despite the poor showing of the team there was a large crowd on hand to witness the game, which is the right spirit, and it is hoped that the club will appreciate this support by battling for the high honors from now on. Following is the score:

Your bills have jumped from $1.30 per 1000 feet to $2.25 per 1000 feet, and in addition the gas is of a poorer quality, and by reason of this poor gas you are paying from 50 to 82 per cent more than you should." Dresher Boy Scouts gave an interesting demonstration of knot tying and first aid at the entertainment given by the Camp Fire Girls. Both of these organizations stand for the betterment of the community and deserve a good share of the encouragement so graciously given all other organizations of the villages. The Scouts gave creditable first aid to one of their Troop who had the misfortune to fracture his arm, making him comfortable, until the arrival of Dr. Craig.

Local People Interested in Proposed County Hospital.

At a meeting held in the association Charities building, Norristown, and attended by residents of various sections of Montgomery county, who are prominently identified in social and welfare activities, and who comprise the executive ommittee of the Tuberculosis society, it was decided that every effort shoud be extended toward assuring the erection of a hospital in Montgomery county such is authorized by the bill, recenty passed by the Legislature and signed by Governor Sproul. It was the consensus of opinion that this undertaking is by far the most important work the organization coud interest itself in at this time, as the erection of a hospital to take care of the far advanced tuberculosis cases would fill a long-felt need; and in order to formulate some definite line of procedure, President Paul A. Mertz appointed Roy Huber as chairman for the project.

Officers of the Montgomery County Branch, chosen for the ensuing year, are follows: President, Robert J. Edgar, of Narberth; first vice president, Prof. Paul A. Mertz, of Collegeville; second vice president, Mrs. George J. Cooke, of Ambler, secretary, Rev. C. H. Kehm, of Pottstown; treasurer, Clayton H. Alderfer: field secretary Miss Wilda M. SKETCH OF DR. NASSAU.

Eminent Missionary Born at Montgomery Square.

Died While Resident of Mercer Home, Ambler, May 6—Spent 54 Years in Africa—His Authorship—Interest in Local History.

In the death of Robert Hamill Nassau, M. D., S. T. D., the Montgomery County Historical Society has lost a valued member, and the Presbyterian Church at large one of its most widely known and valiant missionaries. He died at Ambler, Pa., May 6, 1921, in the 86th year of his life, and is buried at Lawrenceville, N. J., where he attended school, graduating in 1851 and from Princeton in 1854.

Dr. Nassau, was born at Montgomery Square, Pa., Oct. 11, 1835 and up to the age of 17 was frequently in Norristown, his father having charge of the First Presbyterian Church, also Providence and Norriton, from 1825 to 1836, and continued to reside at the Square from 1838 to 1841.

His father, Rev. Charles William Nassau, D. D., married a daughter of Robert Hamill, of Norristown, and young Robert Nassau often visited his Grandmother Hamill and could well remember his being taken to the old First Presbyterian Church, a short walk from Main street, near Cherry.

He could also recall his aunt Elizabeth Davis, who on the death of Robert Hamill, came to Norristown with her husband, Benjamin Davis (a merchant of Coatesville) and their children, to reside with his grandmother.

These connections with Norristown made Dr. Nassau have a special regard for the work of our Historical Society and he joined it about 1912. In 1913 he prepared for the Society a paper entitled "Boyhood Recollections of Montgomery Square," in which he shows the close connection with Norristown.

He had hoped to see it printed in our volumes of "Historical Sketches" before he died, but it will not be printed until our next volume is issued.

The ten years of his life at Ambler have been spent in writing books of biography devotion and missionary work. These latter also covered much of scientific matter for which he received from Princeton the degree S. T. D. in recognition of his varied and valuable services.

He was busy writing for publication until the end of his life. Some of his books he presented to the Historical Society, namely, "Where Animals Talk" in 1912. His largest work, called "My Ogowe," is the story of some of the 54 years spent in equatorial Africa, where he explored unknown regions, at the risk of his life, carrying the Gospel to darkest Africa, at the same time acting as stated clerk for the Presbytery of Corisco for over fifteen years. I quote from a review of this book, these words:

"He had given his heart to this mission; even so himself, scholar and poet labored for other worlds than this; on the banks of the Ogowe, which had become his he had paid the price of a loving heart.

"Under the branches of the cocoanut palms he himself had planted; the sorrow came of burying there his wife."

Part of this time he had charge of the girls' school at Corisco for five years, following his father's footsteps who had taught at the Norristown Academy, and Lawrenceville School and at Lafayette College as president. In nine years he organized three churches, spending five years in charge of Libreville and three years at Batanga. Here he obtained his material for "Batanga Tales" folk Lore stories of which he gave the Historical Society a copy.

"Fetishism in West Africa" and "in An Elephant Corral," are other works. His autibiography is completed, I understand, and will be published later

The following I quote from "The Presbyterian" of May 26, 1921, his own words to a friend:

"It is with a deep satisfaction that I look back on the privilege and honor that God gave me of service in his foreign missionary work. Whatever failures or errors there may have been in my life on a foreign field, I rejoice that I could go to one of the most difficult fields, and that I was enabled, by careful Hygiene, under God's directing hand, to live in a hostile climate longer than any of my associates and to bear trials and dangers equal to those that had fallen on them. I look back with gratitude on the fact that the Master allowed me to share, if in the pain, also, in the honor of His Cross.

—Frances Macomb Fox, Curator.

Thieves Keep Up Cheltenham Raids.

Thieves who have made recurrent raids on homes in Cheltenham during the last six weeks work with a system.

The first raid happened early in April. There were several robberies in one night. Money, jewelry and trolley tickets were taken.

Later the thieves confined themselves to silverware. When they raided several houses a week ago they took nothing but rugs of various sizes. They took three from the home, in Central avenue, and a fourth from the Horner home, two doors away.

Now it's money and talking machine records. The thieves looted the home of Wm. Sebald, Washington avenue and got $40 and more than $100 worth of records.

At least 30 houses have been entered in six weeks. Chief of Police Hallowell has detailed extra men to the district, and numerous volunteer detectives are at work nightly.

Many Cheltenham women and children are so badly frightened they will not go on the streets after dark, and virtually every householder sleeps with a weapon within reach.

Mrs. Somers Randolph, 100 Central avenue heard footsteps on the front porch one night recently and looking out a window saw an automobile parked near the house with the engine running. When she raised a window the man on the porch heard the noise and ran, and the machine sped around a corner.

Bucks County Licenses.

One liquor license was refused, application for another was withdrawn, and 94 liquor licenses granted by Judge William C. Ryan, of Bucks county without comment. Bucks county license court was held May 9th when remonstrances were filed against two applications.

With two exceptions all applicants were granted licenses. This makes then umber of licenses practically the same as last year.

JENKINTOWN.

The banquet of the Jenkintown business Men's Association was held Wednesday evening, June 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Heinrich, of Bethlehem, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Marjorie Ann Heinrich on Thursday, May 12. Mrs. Heinrich will be remembered as Miss Margaret Carlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Carlin, formerly of Mather avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Carlin and Mrs. James L. Heger have returned from a visit to Bethlehem.

The Klauder-Weldon Dyeing Machine company have sent out cards of announcement of their removal into their new and more commodious general offices and plant at Bethayres where they are prepared to take care of your requirements in dyeing, bleaching and scouring machinery.

Morris Goldberg is accepting estimates for the erection of seven brick buildings consisting of six rooms and bath to be erected on Johnson street, near West avenue.

Dr. C. S. Salyor and family, of Summit avenue have returned from a short stay in Boston.

Miss Helen Stroud has been visiting her cousin, Miss Alma Longshore, of Dolington.

Councilman James B. Colladay and wife are now occupying their cottage at Ocean City.

The Cortes-Jordan Post, No. 163, of the American Legion takes this opportunity to express their appreciation and extend their thanks to the private owners, merchants and automobile dealers of Jenkintown, whose cars were donated for conveying the Legion members to the funeral of Private Charles B. Scott, on Saturday, May 28th.

Miss Josephine A. Campion, niece of Mrs. J. McGurn has entered Nurses' Training school, Jewish hospital.

Printer Strike Puts County in a Haze.

Because of the strike of state printers, county officials are at a loss to know just where they stand on the mass of new legislation passed at the recent session of the legislature.

Many measures affecting this county were passed and signed by the Governor, but copies of the laws cannot be sent to the counties because the strike has tied up all printing. County Treasurer Bardman has received notice from the state concerning the "Woner Bill," which applies to the liquor license payments, but is at a loss to know just what the measure contained and cannot safely proceed until he has an opportunity to digest the new regulations.

Would Improve Road.

The Somerton Improvement association, represented by two citizens of Lower Moreland township, this county, two from Philadelphia county and two from Southampton township, Bucks county commissioners, recntly called on the County Commissioners to ask for improvement of the County Line road, running between Bucks and Montgomery counties and touching Philadelphia county.

The committee asked that the State Aid system he invoked in rebuilding the road, thus dividing the cost between the townships and counties and the State.

The Potters, of Bridge street, have returned benefited after some time at the shore.

At the Alumni meeting of the Cheltenham High school, Oreland was well represented. W. H. Calverley, Jr., rounded out twelve years of service as treasurer, and George Weidner is to continue as secretary after a long term of service. Among those at the meeting were the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Calverley, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Weidner and Lillian Breisacker.

All the arrangements for the 4th of July celebration are now taking definite shape and from all indications this 4th is going to be the biggest day Oreland has ever had.

Last Saturday there were about 40 members of the Y. W. C. A. of Philadelphia, who made a trip out to Oreland and were received by Mrs. Wolford, of Park avenue. The party was later entertained by Mrs. Van Rensselaer in her usual hospitable manner on the spacious lawn. The heavy shower early in the evening put an end to the baseball game, which was in progress at that time.

The Oreland Quoit club, of which Mr. Zoll is president, has recently changed its rules in order to conform with the rules of the American Quoit club, which recently was honored by the joining of President Harding. There is quite a fascination about the game and not that the first citizen of the land is a member of the club of is possible that the game will receive many new adherents.

John Bowen, of Bridge street, moved this week to his new home, a large farm located at Somerton. Oreland loses one of its best boosters in Mr. Bowen, a man who was always ready to start or help in anything that was for the advancement of the town, a man who was jealous for its good name. His good counsel andreal work will be missed very much and Somerton is to be congratulated on the acquisition of her new citizen.

Lillian Breisacker and Allen G. Cresman, Jr., were members of the graduating class at Cheltenham High school, which held its annual commencement on Friday evening.

The Tank Car Corporation of America, after recently finishing an expensive well, has been forced to install Springfield water, owing to the fact that quick sand interferred in the artesian well.

The members of the Oreland Fire company are busy at work digging the ditch to lay the water pipes down the street on which the fire house stands.

The North Glenside Tigers trimmed the Oreland Pickups to the tune of 12 to 6 in a twilight game last Saturday. To the credit of the Oreland team, it might be said that it didn't get its last bats, and as batting is the only way that runs can be manufactured, it is easily seen that with the heavy end of the batting order up in the seventh inning, there might have been a different story to tell.

Norristown's New Industry.

Norristown is to have a new manufacturing concern, one which, according to a representative, will employ five hundred men and women and have a weekly payroll of approximately $10,000. This firm will manufacture boys' and young men's clothing and be located in the factory property at the foot of Swede street, commonly known as Simpson's mill and for sevral years occupied by Tonner and Moyer, manufacturers of hosiery.

This concern has secured a lease on the large building from the Counties Gas and Electric Co., and will occupy four of the floors while the other portion of the building will be occupied by the Hosey Worsted Co. as a branch to its main factory in Bridgeport.

I. Buchman, a representative of the firm stated that the firm will carry the name of the town. It will be known as the Norristown Clothing Co. Factories are operated by it in various sections of this state and New York. Garments made by the factories under the control of the men identified with this corporation are sold to some of the country.

A reliable, dependable, easy running, easy riding, economical in gasoline, oil and assuring long life to tires—such is the car you are looking for. I beg to call your attention to the Buick. Examine it critically, ask a Buick owner and let me demonstrate its many commendable features. —Rudolph Speelhoffer, agent. adv

Some of the residents of the easterly section of Ambler are having their own troubles with gardens and poultry. One grower whose asparagus was growing nicely and who anticipated cutting fine stalks the next day, found to his sorrow that some one had relieved him of the work and removed his anticipated relish. Another resident who devoted much work in the early spring cleaning up his strawberry bed, found a few days ago, that not only a portion of the fruit, but fully 50 plants as well had been dug out of his garden The same resident was visited, a few nights before, by a large dog, which animal viciously tore apart a stout wooden chicken coop, killed a number of baby chicks and carried off the mother hen. Needless to say that residents in that section have guns loaded and are exercising a sharp lookout for trespassers. No signs are posted, but bird shot will be the greetings extended to all such unwelcome visitors.

Dr. W. G. Miller is Prison Inspector.

Dr. J. K. Weaver, the nestor of Norristown physicians, has tendered the court his resignation as prison inspector and the court appointed Dr. Wm. G. Miller, 825 DeKalb street, Norristown, in his place.

Dr. Weaver, ascribing as the main reason for his resignation, his condition of health, addresses his withdrawal to Judge Swartz as follows:

"I wish hereby to tender my resignation as a member of the Board of Prison Inspectors of Montgomery county, conferred to me ten years ago by you and the late Judge Henry K. Weand.

"It is with regret that I sever my relations with the other members of the Board and relinguish the pleasant work which has been most congenial, but my physical condition partially incapacitates me for the proper performance of my hearty appreciation of the honor conferred upon me in assigning me to this duty."

In appointing Dr. Miller as Dr. Weaver's successor, Judge Swartz says:

"And now, June 1, 1921, the resignation of the said Dr. J. K. Weaver having been accepted this day with deep regret and with our appreciation of his faithful service for so many years, we do now appoint to said office Dr. Wm. G. Miller to fill the said vacancy. The appointment will continue until April 1, 1922, or until his successor shall be appointed."

—H. C. Detwiler, of Hagersville, organist of the Lutheran Church at Tohickon since 1871, has resigned.

WEST POINT

A number of our residents attended the funeral of C. J. Crisswell, who will be remembered died while in the service during the World war, and whose body was received from France last week. Funeral services were held from his late home in Chester county. The deceased, prior to enlisting was the supervising principal of Upper Gwynedd township schools, and while here he took a great interest in the advancement of the work among the young people of Grace Reformed church. He was member of West Point camp, P. O. S. of A. From this organization, the Sabbath school and the Upper Gwynedd Alumni floral tributes were sent to the house.

Mrs. Russell Espenship was a guest last week of Mrs. Clarence Shellenberger at her home in Souderton.

Some fields of grain in this section is beginning to ripen and there are also several fields of potatoes in blossom. The grass crop also looks good. However rain is needed to increase this crop.

Preparations are being made to celebrate the glorious 4th in a fitting manner here. There will be a flag raising, sports and other events that will help make the day an enjoyable one. A tree has been cut down in the woods of A. M. Rader at Valley Forge and has been hauled to this place and is now being shaped for a flag pole and will be raised on the athletic field adjoining Zeiber's park.

Fenstermacher Brothers, local painters, have completed a job of painting in Norristown.

Our local ball team had very little trouble in defeating the Cramp ship yard team last Sunday. The visitors came here with quite a reputation, but the home club was too much for them and they were obliged to taek the short end of a 10 to 2 score. Next Sunday afternon Clifton Heights team will be the attraction on the park grounds. The local club, from all accounts will find this team a different proposition . The increased attendance at the games has caused the local athletic association to consider the erection of another grandstand.

The teachers have been elected by the Upper Gwynedd school board: Broad street school, Miss Helen Kuhn, First and Second grades; Miss Bessie Ott, Third and Fourth grades; Mrs. Elizabeth Smedley, Fifth and Sixth grades; Howard Fluck, Seventh and Eighth grades. West Point high school, Harry Herbert, who has also been elected supervising principal; Miss Blanch Leister, primary room.

D. S. Zern and Son held a public sale of fresh cows at Knipe's stock yards Hatfield on Monday.

The women voters of Upper Gwynedd will hold a meeting this Thursday evening in the West Point school house. All women interested are invited.

Quite a number of the members of the local Reformed church attended the Children's day exercises last Sunday in Wentz's Reformed church. The latter church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the attendance was a large one.

The Collegeville Assembly

The program of the 14th Collegeville Summer assembly, to be held at Collegeville, Aug. 1-7, has been announced. Five eminent preachers and specialists in religious work constitute the staff of speakers for the week. The program will include expository lectures at 9 a. m. by Dr. William E. Doughty, of New York; lectures on religious education at 11 a. m. by Dr. Frank M. Sheldon, secretary of the Congregational Education society, of Boston; talks to children at 4 p. m. by Dr. James M. Farrar, of Brooklyn; sunset services and evening platform sermons by Dr. James I. Vance, of Nashville, and J. R. Fleming, of Glasgow, Scotland. The latter is the secretary of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system and is one of Scotland's distinguished preachers.

The Collegeville Assembly is non-secretarian, and welcomes attendants from all denominations of Christtians. It is the outcome of a movement begun 15 years ago to provide for ministers and other church workers an inexpensive yet profitable week of conference and intercourse under the leadership of recognized masters in various fields of church activity.

The assembly occupies the splendid buildings and grounds of Ursinus college, which are used throughout the month of August for religious conferences. The premises provide fine accommodations for family groups . On account of the limited capacity of the place, application should be filed in advance in order to insure accommodations.

Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, D. D., of Philadelphia, is president of the assembly. Dr. George L. Omwake, president of Ursinus college, is director, and the Rev. Calvin D. Yost, of Collegeville, is secretary and treasurer.

Buys Jenkintown Residence.

Title to the stone colonial residence and garage with about one acre of ground at the southeast corner of Old York road and Lenox road, Jenkintown, has passed from Walter A. Bailey to Benjamin W. Greer, Jr. The house contains sixteen rooms and four baths and was offered for sale at $65,000. Its sale was negotiated by Smullen & Barry.

Sheriff Injured in Motor Accident.

Sheriff Jacob Hamilton suffered a painful injury to one of his knees as the result of an accident, Saturday evening, May 28, at Ardmore. The sheriff with Assemblyman Joseph Ruth, of Norristown, were driving on Lancaster avenue, Ardmore, when a Ford car suddenly darted from a side street into the avenue making a left hand turn. In order to avoid striking the Ford, Mr. Ruth turned his car quickly towards the sidewalk and struck a telegraph pole. The impact threw the sheriff from his seat and he struck his knee cap against the side of the car inflicting a painful but not serious injury. Mr. Ruth was not injured. The radiator of the car was damaged and the windshield broken. The Sheriff has recovered sufficiently to be able to attend to his duties and is about.

Gives League Pennant.

Harvey L. Frederick, Prothonotary of Montgomery county, and one of the original boosters of the Montgomery County Baseball League, has presented the league with its official pennant for the 1921 season.

Mr. Frederick's home town, Souderton, has twice copped the bunting in the league, but indications this year point to at least a three cornered battle for the honors, with Souderton having only a fighting chance.

Prothonotary Wants Another Term.

Basing his claim for nomination on the Republican ticket to succeed himself on a splendid and highly efficient administration of one of the most important of the county offices. Prothonotary Harvey S. Frederick, of Souderton, has formally announced his candidacy, and will come before the voters for an endorsement at the September primaries.

Norristown Honor Roll to Come Down.

Norristown's honor roll board in the public square, containing the names of the World war service men, will be removed in the near future as the result of the action taken at a meeting of the community patriotic committee. According to several members of this organization, who have given the matter considerable thought, public opinion seems to be strongly in favor of some permanent form of memorial being erected, and as the paint is peeling off of the honor roll board, making it impossible to read some of the names, it was thought that the time had arrived to do away with this temporary "memorial tablet" and to start them over for something of a permanent nature.

Free Education in Forestry.

A free education in forestry is offered the young men of Pennsylvania by the state department of Forestry. Gifford Pinchot, the chief forester, has announced that competitive examinations will be held June 16 and 17, at Harrisburg, for free scholarships to the State Forest academy, at Mont Alto.

The 10 men will be appointed to the Forest academy where they will begin their study of forestry next September. A further test of six week's work will be given on one of the state forests.

Young men between the ages of 18 and 25 who have completed a four year's high school course and who have had experience in farming, lumbering, surveying and other forms of outdoor work, are particularly desired. The scholarships provide free tuition, board, room and laundry. Upon successful completion of the course, which includes thorough and practical training, a degree in forestry will be awarded.

Information about the State academy and application blanks for the examination, may be had by writing to E. A. Ziegler, director, Pennsylvania State Forest academy, Mont Alto, Pa.

Want Interest on Held-Up Salaries.

District Attorney Frank X. Renninger and his assistants will make an attempt to collect interest on the salaries held up by county officials for ten months, while the court was determining whether the salary act was legal.

Attorney I. P. Knipe filed a motion for an additional ruling on the mandamus action asking that the court order the county to pay 6 per cent. interest on the money held up. The papers filed by Mr. Knipe ask only for interest for the two months upon which the original manadmus action was brought but the decision will automatically act for th efull ten monhs, if decided in favor of the petitioners.

On April 1 of this year, Mr. Renninger and his assitants and clerks were paid the total of $10,433.36 for the ten-month period in which their salaries were held up. They claim that during this time, the county was improperly holding the money at interest and that its use was due the District Attorney and other beneficiaries.

Mr. Renninger received a lump sum of $4166.68, and the other attaches of the office as follows: A. H. Hendricks, first assitant, $2500; J. B. Holland, second assistant, $1666.69; G. C. Corson, indictment clerk, $1000; Miss Mary L. Cleaver, stenographer, $1100.

—The Hartman Building in Pottstown's business centre, was sold to Mrs. Etta L. B. Anderson for $15,000.

Board to Enforce Compensation Law.

In accordance with the new workmen's compensation law, signed by the Governor April 7, the state board is beginning to serve notices upon employers who have not taken out insurance on their employes and if necessary, the attorney of the board will bring suit.

According to a survey by the board there are about 100,000 employers in Pennsylvania who have not taken out insurance. Most notable offenders are lawyers who employ a stenographer, small contractors and small shops.

Penalty for violation of the new law is $1 a day for every employe not insured against death or disability. The purpose of the new law, which is supplementary to that of 1915 is to force employers with little or no assets to insure their employes.

In the past such employers could not be forced to make settlement with injured employes as they did not have sufficient assets to enable the court to give judgment for settlement.

From January 1, 1916 to May 1, 1921, 326,422 persons have received compensation, $25,308,000 has been paid to injured workmen or their dependants, while $20,000.00 more is due in installments to widows and other dependents. The board shows the cost of insurance is trifling in comparison to risk in case of a settlement on injuries or death incurred while on duty.

A ruling has been made that any persons having work done by a contractor shall be liable for compensation for injuries to employes of the contractor, if the latter is not vocered by insurance. Another ruling is that the law does not apply to persons engaged in work of interstate commerce.

Why That Headache?

When you know the cause of a disease a cure may often be effected. This is particularly true of headache. Headache often results from constipation or a disordered condition of the stomach which may be corrected by taking a dose or two of Chamberlain's Tablets. Try it. These tablets are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. jun

R. F. Erwin Regarding His Troubles.

"A year ago last winter I had an attack of indigestion followed by biliousness and constipation. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets so highly recommended for stomach troubles I bought a bottle of them and they helped me right away," writes R. F. Erwin, Peru, Ind. If you have any trouble with your digestion give these tablets a trial. They will do you good. jun

Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Every family should keep this preparation at hand ready for instant use when needed. Severe attacks of colic and cholera morbus often prove fatal before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. The uniform success that has attended the use of this remedy and the prompt cures which it has effected have made it a staple article of trade. jun

Schwartz Bill Vetoed

The Schwartz bill increasing fees of constables was vetoed on the ground that it would have added to the costs of litigation. The governor remarked that the fees were fixed four years ago, when a large increase was made, and added: To increase them still further at this time would have greatly added to the cost of litigation before justices of the peace, where the amounts involved are small. It seems unnecessary at this time to increase legal costs and the burden upon the litigation."

I wish I knew some other way to please the eye of men.
Than that which flows from day to day
so freely from my pen.
I do admire the classy art of advertising grace,
And think perhaps it does impart most interest to our race.

Now, Rittenhouse and Rittenhouse

For hardware that will trap your Commiseration is the word that springs into my verse

I truly feel it is absurd to speak of poet's purse.

No matter what the object be, it has its light and shade.
Just close your eye to things you see,
all colors instant fade.
The sun by day and moon by night are much of life to me.
The grandest thing is proper sight to see the sights we see.

June 1921 A. M. CRAIG.

Resolutions on Death of Mr. Hollingsworth.

At a special meeting of the Board of Road Supervisors of Lower Gwynedd township, in the county of Montgomery, in the state of Pennsylvania, held on the seventh day of June, 1921, the death of their president, Mr. Pemberton Hollingsworth, was announced with deep regret; and upon motion of Mr. Thomas S. Gillin, member of the board, the following minute was unanimously adopted:

That Mr. Pemberton Hollingsworth as a member of the board of Road Supervisors of Lower Gwynedd township, was very active in seeing that the roads of the township were kept in proper condition, giving his personal attention to them, and his surviving fellow members feel that his death has deprived the township of its most valued member and faithful president, and personally that they have lost a dear friend and adviser.

The members of the Board, individually and collectively, tender their most sincere sympathy to Mrs. Hollingsworth.

THOMAS S. GILLIN,
Supervisor,
IRVIN KING
Secretary.

On motion it was ordered that a copy of this minute be sent to Mrs. Hollingsworth.
